ARIES

March 21 - April 20

ARIES' KEYWORDS

Courageous, Competitive, Driven, Open, Generous

YOUR STRENGTHS

You're a wild one, Aries. As the first sign of the zodiac, you wear your emotions for everyone to see and feel all of the things with a deep intensity. Your competitive and driven nature keeps you on top. Life is never boring with you. You're a natural daredevil with a tendency to snap into action when needed. Your generosity and straight-shooting, honest nature make you the go-to person anytime someone needs advice and a shoulder to cry on.

YOUR CHALLENGES

You can turn anything into a competition - even that generous side of yours. It's okay to let others make the first move in enlisting your help. Your desire to take control and help others can sometimes come off as bossy, no matter how well-intentioned you may be. Everyone has a vulnerable side, so there's no need to turn to competition to hide your insecurity.

Vivacious, Charismatic, Commanding, Warm, Entertaining

YOUR STRENGTHS

All the world is your stage, Leo. No one can command attention like you. You're a natural-born leader with the charisma to endear you to your audience. Your prideful ways can make you border on petty at times and hold onto grudges with a death grip. As a natural-born leader, it may not occur to you that even the best leaders need someone to guide them as well.
